Acreage of Designations by Region & Acreage in All Ownerships within the Planning Area

Land Use Designation and Acreage Summary By Region

The following tables summarize the number of acres under each designation by region. To determine the total number of acres under each classification, use the designation-classification conversion tables in Chapter 4 (Tables 4.1A and 4.1B).

<sup>1</sup> The sum of the total number of acres under each designation exceeds the total acres of state land in the planning area (shown on Table 1.1 in Chapter 1) since many units have more than one designation. The acreages below do not include acreages of state-owned shorelands (fresh water areas). These figures also do not include state lands in the State Park System (SPS) that are legislatively designated, but do include lands that were added to the SPS administratively.

Note: The total of the sum of the figures above is larger than the total acres addressed by the plan. Units that are co-designated with two or more designations are counted for each designation under which they are co-designated.

<sup>3</sup> Regions 2 and 4 contain no tidelands.

Acreages in the Planning Area

The table below lists the total acres in different ownerships in the planning area at the time the plan was adopted.<sup>4</sup>

Table E.3 Acreages under all Ownerships in the Planning Area

Ownership	Acreage (thousands)	Percent of total uplands/tidelands in the planning area

Tidelands Subtotal	5,020

<sup>4</sup> These figures differ from those that include all lands within the entire Kenai Peninsula Borough. The Kenai Area Plan does not address lands east of Cape Resurrection (in the Prince William Sound Area Plan) and some of the lands covered by the Bristol Bay Area Plan in the Lake Iliamna area.

<sup>5</sup> Acreages for state land do not include the 214,000 acres of state-selected land (that are included under acreages within national parks, forests and refuges or owned by BLM, FAA or other federal agencies).
